

Federation Urges Third Increase In Return To Farmer

A resolution placing the directors of the York county federation of agriculture on record as favoring a 44-hour week on farms and a 33 percent increase in the prices of all farm produce was unanimously passed at a recent meeting of the directors in Newmarket.

Resolution has grown out of the need for farm labor and the inability of farmers to meet the wage levels paid for industrial workers.

C. H. Hooper, reeve of Markham, who moved the resolution, said in discussing the resolution that "only a small number of farms have hired help now and at a time when food is badly needed they cannot get the best results. Why should men work 15 or 16 hours a day on a farm when they can get the same wages working eight hours a day in industry?"

Mr. Hooper said a movement was now under way to secure a minimum wage of 65 cents an hour for farm workers as against a flat rate of $50 to $75 a month currently being paid to hired men.

"We would need the price increase first, though," he warned. "After the last war we used to

Need Of Medical Help In China Told In Letter

How members of a Friends' Ambulance Unit in China set up an impromptu hospital in China was told in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Starr, Pleasantville, by Francis Starr.

The incident occurred while the convoy Francis Starr was with was halted because of a breakdown of the train. Saying that word had apparently gotten around that there were foreigners with the train, Francis Starr writes, "all the sick, the maimed, the halt and the blind came down to the tracks for repairs. The faith of the poor people was amazing and it was also amazing that so many sick and injured people could congregate so quickly."

"There were at least two cases that Hobbs (one of the party) diagnosed as appendicitis and the persons concerned were quite willing, for him to operate. As Hobbs and I both possessed emergency medical kits, we decided that we would put them to use right there."

"It was quite apparent that there wasn't sufficient space to treat the people in our car so we hauled down a couple of trunks and spread out our kits on them. Immediately there was a rush when the people saw there was some help available and before we could get operations underway, the crowd was so dense we didn't have elbow room. I got my cane out of the car and chased the crowd back and then marked out a space about 2' x 12' and forbade anybody to cross the line without permission."

"We soon got things organized with Hobbs as surgeon and Redman (second member of the party) as assistant. Crann (third member) made a fire and sterilized the instruments. I appointed myself policeman and consultant, and let the patients into the plot two at a time according to the urgency of their cases. We didn't keep any records but I would estimate that we treated about 80 people. The whole proceeding was rather bizarre but served very well to illustrate the awful needs of the people out here."

Charge Of Arson Is Laid Following Loss Of Home

A charge of arson has been laid against Michael West, who lives on the township line between King and East Gwillimbury, and is now being held in custody in Toronto. The charge was laid by Constable Ronald Watt of Newmarket following his investigation into the fire that destroyed the West home Friday afternoon.

According to police, Mrs. West and her six children were ordered from their home by Mr. West

MANY OFFICES WERE HELD BY GEO. D. WARK

Remembered in Newmarket as an active worker in church and public affairs, George Deavitt Wark died in the Toronto Western hospital April 6 and was buried in Hillcrest cemetery, Tara, Ont. He was in his 74th year. He had been ill several months.

Born in Arran township, Bruce county, April 10, 1872, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wark, he lived in Mount Hope as a boy, and was educated at Owen Sound and Stratford. He later taught school for nine years prior to entering the employ of the Office Specialty Mfg. Co. from which he retired as office manager and secretary in 1932.

Mr. Wark joined the Office Specialty at its Toronto office in 1905, coming to Newmarket when the head office was moved here in 1915. Always interested in church and public affairs, Mr. Wark was a member of the high school board, secretary-treasurer of the Arena Co., and a member of the hospital board in its early years. He was for many years secretary of the official board of Trinity United church, and a member of the Newmarket branch of the work board of the United church. He was a member of the Rotary club and the Board of Trade in Toronto for many years.

Following his retirement from the Office Specialty, he remained in Newmarket, later moving to Orillia where he lived for four years, going to Toronto in 1944.

Mr. Wark was a bachelor. He is survived by two brothers, Dr. David Wark, Flint, Mich., and Ernest Wark, Tara, and three sisters, Mrs. Jas. Fletcher, Tara; Mrs. Andrew Wolfe, Mount Hope; and Mrs. George Tedford, Centenary. One brother, Milton, predeceased him in January, and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, died at Grand Valley some years ago. A second sister, Beatrice, died in infancy.

TEEN-AGERS SEEK IMPROVED FACILITIES

The activities of the executive of the Newmarket Community Recreation Council were endorsed by a unanimous vote of the council Tuesday night. The constitution of the recreation council calls for a monthly meeting of the council at which time, the executive reports on past business and future plans for the approval of the full council which is made up of representatives of all active recreation organizations and those interested in recreation.

J. B. Bastedo, reporting on a meeting of "teen-agers," said that those at the meeting were definitely interested in the provision of more forms of recreation for that age group. Foremost in their demands was a swimming pool. Other suggestions included a teen-age club, provision of organized outdoor sports, use of indoor gymnasiums in the high school and Pickering College for floor hockey, basketball, etc.

Mr. Bastedo is planning a general meeting at which time, it is expected, a committee of the teen-agers will be formed with the recreation council serving as a parent body to which the teen-agers can apply for help.

VETERANS ORGANIZE FOR SUMMER SPORTS

A large turnout of Newmarket veterans met at the club room last Thursday to organize a summer sports program. A committee was elected consisting of Douglas May, chairman; Norman Legge, secretary-treasurer; Alex. McIntosh, "Mickey" Smith, Stan Evans, Harvey Gibney and Miles McInnes. Coach "White Owl" McDonald and the hockey executive were congratulated on their fine showing during the past season.

After a frank and constructive discussion, it was decided to branch out into baseball. It was also decided to sponsor an amateur show in the town hall on May 15-16 with total proceeds going to purchase sports equipment. Comrade Orville Ganton, former bandmaster who has promoted so many local amateur productions in the past, was coaxed out of retirement to line up and stage a popular variety show. With everyone present pledging his full support, it is hoped this will provide two evenings of solid entertainment as well as raising the necessary funds to extend the veterans' sports activities.

N.H.S. Players Take Scribe On Trip To Gay Havanna

The high school auditorium was filled to capacity Friday to see In Gay Havanna, an operetta based on Cuban life; a pretty, bright and rather charming production. Although the music of Spanish color, harmonized in haunting minor modes with strange and intricate rhythms, was the weakest part of the work, its performance by this young group was undeniably first rate with the general results impressive.

The plot involved nothing more complex than a Cuban revolution, a kidnapping and several love affairs. The kidnapping and love affairs developed satisfactorily but any revolutionists lurking in the audience would derive little comfort from his Cuban comrades' uprising because they either failed to keep their powder dry or else the property man was an intriguing Bolshevik who planted duds in their pistols.

The operetta, in three acts with 24 musical numbers, was directed by Mrs. Ada Morgan and Miss Elsie Roberts. Young Bobbie Koffend at the piano provided a classical and sympathetic accompaniment; his was a neat job indeed. He was abetted by a colorful but lazy rumba band. These four Bohemians contented themselves with one perfectly executed trumpet fan-fare and with patting an occasional pattern in the ensembles. Maybe they had smoked too much marijuana. A pity all the music had not been scored for a precision section because a well accented rhythm is the very soul and essence of Latin American music.

Obligated to choose what I liked most of the musical numbers, I'd have to settle for the duet, When Days Are Lonely, sung by Shirley Andrews and Marion King. Miss King gave the alto part a brisk rendering with a beautiful voice as true as steel in pitch. Pearl Gunn sang a pensive and pretty little melody, Please Buy My Bombs. Although her voice lacked volume it was of sweet and appealing quality. Stallard Waterhouse sang a tom cat serenade that had an effective and humorous ending. Perhaps the nearest trick in the book was an eccentric dance by five gloomy chaperons, L. Climpson, A. Drury, A. Lapp, A. McComb and M. Shanks.

The choral work was moderately good though entries were sometimes cautious and a little ragged. A full orchestra would have overcome much of this difficulty. I particularly liked Fine Words and Eloquence and the grand finale with the operetta's motif cleverly written in a deep, well pointed bass.

The cast brought out the plot quite clearly. Douglas Wilson as a feather brained Cuban wolf, two Ruths, Hill and Wilmet, as the Beadle sisters and oodles of chic senioritas kept everything lively. "Ambassador" Orla Larsen, some Cuban jive records and a torridly warm ball provided a receptive atmosphere before curtain time. Altogether it was a satisfactory evening. Nice going, high school. As they say in Gay Havanna, "labor omnia vincit."

The businessmen of Forest Hill Village tendered a banquet in honor of their reeve, Fred G. Gardiner, K.C., who is the new warden of York County, at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on Thursday.

Among those present were ex-Wardens J. O. Little, Fred Lundy and Ernest Sprague, Reeve Arthur D. Evans and Deputy-reeve Joel Spillette. Premier George Drew was the guest speaker.

Return Of Mayor Sought By Council, Send Delegation

The Newmarket town council delayed any decisions on the resignation as mayor of Dr. L. W. Dales Monday night until after a final attempt had been made to reconcile the mayor with the council. Dr. Dales resigned following the refusal of the town council to grant $1,000 to the Newmarket Community Recreation Council. The grant was $500.

"I feel the same as the rest of the council," said Deputy-reeve J. L. Spillette. "It is too bad a minor matter has been allowed to develop to this point. I would like to see Dr. Dales back. He has carried a heavy load and has done much for Newmarket. I would suggest some sort of a meeting. The fact that the recreation council is prepared to go ahead should help."

Mrs. Caroline Edwards: "Speaking for the recreation council, the resignation of Dr. Dales came as just as much of a shock to the recreation council as it did to the town council. We had no idea he was going to resign."

Councillor G. M. Byers: "I would certainly like to see him back. I suggest a meeting and if he is still desirous of resigning, we could give it further consideration. It is very unfortunate that a minor thing has developed to this point."

Councillor Frank Bowser: "It has been my privilege and pleasure to have worked under him for some years and I would like to see him continue. I would like to see a meeting to iron out difficulties. He was sincere in his views as was the council."

The recreation council is carrying on and perhaps we can meet together and settle the matter."

Councillor J. A. Perks: "It is regrettable that this has happened. As far as the council is concerned, we did only what we thought was right. It will be hard to reconcile the council stand with the mayor's stand. He wants us to do as he wishes, that's the truth of the matter."

Mrs. Edwards: "Is not the mayor in the position of a leader?"

Mr. Bowser: "The councillors are not the followers. We are elected here to act independently as we see fit."

Reeve Arthur D. Evans: "The whole council decides policy."

Councillor R. C. Morrison: "I can't add anything further to this. I definitely support the recreation council and it is ready to go ahead. How there will be an agreement between the mayor and council, I don't know."

Reeve Evans: "We should consider his resignation here and now."

Councillor Jos. Vale: "He'll reconsider only if the grant is made. Why meet with him, then, since we are not changing our stand on the grant?" "Out of courtesy," replied Deputy-reeve Spillette.

Mr. Vale: "He asked us to accept his resignation, that is his wish. We are only putting off the inevitable."

On the suggestion of the solicitor, N. L. Mathews, K.C., councillor asked Mr. Mathews to lay before Dr. Dales the stand of the council with the expression of hope that Dr. Dales would withdraw his resignation.

Council Authorizes Rent Of Arena During Summer

A letter was read to the Newmarket town council Monday night from the Newmarket Community Recreation Council saying that the latter had decided to resume its activities following its meeting with the municipal council.

The letter said that the recreation council was satisfied with the expressions of support from the individual municipal councillors and accepted the assurances of the town council members that a favorable hearing would be given any requests for additional assistance at a later date if necessary.

The rink committee was instructed to negotiate with Wm. I. Smith who wants to rent the arena during the summer months as a recreation centre. Mrs. Caroline Edwards, chairman of the arena committee, said that Mr. Smith planned to install a roller skating floor in the arena; should the town council decide to install artificial ice, Mr. Smith said he was willing to cooperate in the installation. Rent of $100 a month was suggested by Mr. Smith. Mrs. Edwards was instructed to provide in any contract a clause allowing the municipality or other public to rent the arena for public meetings, etc., if required.

"I am in favor of renting the arena to Mr. Smith if it means that it will provide recreation for the young people of town during the summer," said Councillor Frank Bowser.

Canvass To Raise Funds For Research In Cancer

A door-to-door canvass is being conducted by members of the Newmarket Red Cross, the Women's Institute, and the Home and School Association on behalf of the campaign to raise funds for cancer research. An objective of $5,000 has been set for Newmarket and district. H. E. Lambert, manager of the Bank of Toronto, has been named campaign chairman.

Pointing out that more lives were lost through cancer during the war years in Ontario than were lost in warfare, Mr. Lambert urged citizens to respond to the appeal to the best of their ability. "Now that the Red Cross is not making a canvass for funds, this project ranks first on the list of necessary help," said Mr. Lambert.

Contributions are being received at both banks in Newmarket, the Bank of Toronto and the Bank of Montreal.

YACHTING SEASON OPENS

The yachting season on the Holland River has been opened officially. Last week, three small sailboats and a ship's dog with a dark patch over one eye successfully navigated from Queen St. to the railway yards, reporting an uneventful voyage with no more than the usual first-sailing leakage.

The trip was made in an old packing case which held the four occupants comfortably. Poles taken from the old town dump provided power for the undertaking, and doubled as fishing rods. Members of the crew said they caught nothing except some tin cans and that apart from the thrill of being first on the river, the voyage could be considered a failure.

Their progress down river was anxiously watched from the shore by a small group of spectators who shouted advice and warned when snags were ahead. In this way, a half sunken oil barrel was passed without any trouble and some hunks of concrete, blown into the river when the trolley bridges were dynamited, were avoided. At times, however, the oft-repeated advice of the spectators proved their undoing. The captain of the packing case, aroused by too much kibitzing, ordered his crew ashore and chased the onlookers up the street before resuming the voyage in peace.

To the best of our knowledge, there is no municipal recognition forthcoming for the hardy sailors. Both Hamilton and Toronto harbor authorities provide top hats for the captain of the first ship in the harbor in the spring. It would be a gracious gesture on the part of our own elected representatives if some similar honor was provided for our local mariners.

WHERE WILL IT END?

Since the end of the war, there has been an increasing pressure against price levels until now, seemingly, price levels are ceasing to have any meaning. Wages have increased to such an extent that the farmer can no longer afford to hire labor. To enable the farmer to produce, he has been granted some increases in prices for his produce. Now wages will have to be increased to meet the extra cost of living. Once embarked on this scale of increase over increase, there is no stopping it.

This week's issue of The Era and Express carries a report of the meeting of the York county Federation of Agriculture when a resolution was passed asking an increase of one-third in farm prices. The farmer is objecting, and rightly so, to absorbing increased labor costs without increased return for his products. The farmer never has become wealthy from the prices of his produce, and now he is asking, not that he be enabled to become wealthy, but that he receive sufficient return for his produce to enable him to keep on producing.

Yet the average working man has seldom been overpaid. For the most part, his wage increases have been sought for a reason similar to the farmer's. He has demanded increases to enable him to meet increased costs of living. The wages paid in war plants did not represent a true picture of labor salaries. With war plants closed, wartime wages no longer affect the issue. The farmer is asking increases in prices to absorb labor's gains, but the next time, it will be labor asking increases to meet the higher cost of living.

Where is it going to end? Price increase being met by wage increase, and wage increase being met by price increase, until currency values of products and services lose all meaning? That is all we can see ahead. And while this is going on, what happens to the clerks, the office workers, those whose wages are fixed?

Our economy must be out of joint somewhere if two groups must race each other in order to live while a third group, unable to live, faces a prospect of starvation. No one denies the need of the farmer for an increased income in order to hire help, nor the majority of wage increases out of line. Yet it is obvious that some control must be retained if the economy of this country is to remain on a sound basis.

"COLONIALISM"

The Canadian citizenship bill and a "Canada Day" are commensurate with the new stature of our country, but it is going to take more than an act of the federal parliament to erase the provincialism so many people in Canada possess. They look upon Canada as a projection of their ancestral home and their neighbors, unless they share a common background, as trespassers.

We witnessed an incident on a street car in Toronto which bears us out. The street car was crowded and many of the passengers were standing. A Scotsman whose accent and dress revealed her new in Canada, stopped in front of a second generation Italian girl, a university student, who was sitting down, and in a voice loud enough to carry to the rear of the car, she said that it was certainly a shame that these foreigners could sit down while a decent Canadian had to stand.

Canada is too big for distinctions among its citizens. This country is peopled with every race and color under the sun. There is room for all, there is benefit from all. Yet there is among us the type of person who looks upon this country as an exclusive property for their own kind. Canada is no longer a colony but the "colonial" attitudes persist.

The story of the Scotsman is not an exception. Search in your memory and you will recall numerous examples of such "colonialisms." It is not confined to any one race or national ancestry. We have all been guilty of it at one time or another. The point is, when are we going to rid ourselves of it?

York county is like most of Canada with its variety of religious beliefs and national backgrounds. And in York county, like most of Canada, we hear of distinctions being made between a boy with a European name who served with the army overseas, and his fellow veterans. There is no room for that in York county nor in Canada. Either we are Canadians within the meaning of law, or we are not. The people of this dominion can not tolerate any other distinction.

THE COMMON ROUND

By ISABEL INGLIS COLVILLE

EASTER

Hail, glorious morn,
Descending from the skies,
Hail, glorious morn,
That saw the Lord arise;
Hail, glorious Easter,
Resurrection day,
Christ the Lord is risen,
Is risen to reign for aye.

It has always seemed to me that the words of this song thrill with something that must have been in the hearts of Christ's followers when they knew He had risen.

One can sense their terrible depression following the crucifixion and on the day following when Jerusalem was filled with those who had come for the Passover. Every house was crowded to capacity, friend rejoicing to meet friend; the priests glad that the brave young Teacher, who threatened their costly privileges, was in a tomb sealed by their own high priest, and even those who had spread palm branches before Him a week before, now were trying to conceal their having ever been of his following. Judas, in his remorse, had taken his own life; and the Mother of Jesus and His disciples had hidden themselves to grieve in secret. The brilliant moon of that Saturday night mocked their sorrow and when the sun rose on that first Easter morn, one can imagine them wishing that the earthquake on the day of the tragedy had swallowed them.

But what a morning! The sun rose gloriously, lighting up even the grim tower where the Roman guard kept watch and ward. One wonders what Pilate's thoughts were. I have never understood why more blame has not gone to Caiaphas and less to Pilate: Christ said that Caiaphas was the greater sin, and Caiaphas was a Jew and knew the prophecies concerning the Messiah, while Pilate, a Roman of the Romans, knew little and cared less for a religion, which indeed had lost its soul in mere ritual and the greed of its hierarchy. But Pilate was guilty of terrible injustice and his wife's fears would not help quiet his conscience.

But on all these—the fearful, the heartbroken, the indifferent, the proud and the gay—the sun of Easter rose. It glowed and shone on the rare wildflowers that formed a carpet for the risen Christ; it touched the marble and gilded temple, transforming it into a thing of ethereal beauty; the birds sang and the whole landscape seemed to wait the coming of its Maker and Redeemer. What a vision came forth from that tomb—as if all the brightness and glory of the day were gathered into a Being so transcendent that He could burst the gates of death and the tomb.

One does not dare to think of what the world would be without Easter—who would dare to face death for himself or his loved ones; who would dare to face the world of today if the Lord had not said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." And who could face "the daily round, the common task," without that assurance. No life is so lowly, or has fallen so low, but the message of Easter can make it live again—it is life everlasting!

TO THE EDITOR

The editor, The Era and Express: Being a strong believer in the prophetic teaching of the Bible, I was more than interested in Orville Ganton's article, The Foolish Delights of Prophecy, published in your last issue. If what Mr. Ganton has written is true, this writer has been living in a fool's paradise for a good many years, and has enjoyed the experience.

To be fair to your correspondent, he was quite frank in what he had to say, if somewhat angry. The Era and Express was generous with its space and because I believe the subject under discussion so important, and constitutes a real challenge to the authenticity of the Bible, I ask the same treatment in giving the other side of the picture, or at least to make a few observations.

Believe me, I write now more in sorrow than in anger. After reading Mr. Ganton's article very carefully, I have come to the conclusion that it has been a long, long time since I have read such ungodly, dangerous piffle from an accredited writer. Most of what he wrote was, in my opinion, sacrilegious. I do not believe for one moment your correspondent who undertook to ridicule those who profess to believe in the prophetic teaching of the Bible. Apparently Mr. Ganton is not capable of understanding the responsibility of writing such an article.

To me, the writer acted like a person who suddenly was somehow brought face to face with the truth, and the experience made him mad. Could it be that someone is pulling his leg?

Let me say that I do not think it necessary for me to defend the word of God. God Himself will take care of that. It is man's own responsibility how he reacts to it. Now let me give the gospel according to three sepa-

the most out of living. The best way to help the child learn to be fundamentally honest is to be a good example, then let him see that consequences do the teaching rather than parent and teacher the preaching. Some children are forced to lie, cheat and steal to answer questions and keep up to a standard. Requiring a child to apologize is the most senseless thing possible; it makes him lie. Don't make so many opportunities for the child to lie. Why does a child have to lie and be deceitful? Lies are just incidents in the growing child. He should never be made to feel that he has lost the affection of his parents. We get from children about what we expect. It is best to have a feeling of trust and confidence and be expecting good behaviour. What purpose is served by making a child feel guilty or apologetic? If the child has no good reason for misdeed, don't ask him why. That simply helps crooked thinking.

rate and distinct personalities. The gospel according to Orville Ganton, taken from his article: "It is only foolish people who are excited by alleged revelations of what is to happen in the future. Prophecy is a fool's delusion and no part of the rational business of life."

Isaiah, chap. 8, verse 20: "To the law and to the testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." 1 Peter, chap. 1, verses 19-21: "We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place until day dawn and the day star arise in your hearts. Knowing this first that no prophecy of the Scriptures of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

Yours sincerely,
J. Williams.

FEED SHORTAGE

There is a shortage of Protein Materials for livestock feed

THIS SITUATION HAS ARISEN FOR SEVERAL REASONS

- (1) There has been a great increase in balanced feeding in the last few years.
- (2) The fisheries that normally produce large quantities of high protein animal feeds have failed this year.
- (3) Runs of cattle on the stockyards have been light so far this year and the production of meat meal has fallen off accordingly.

In these circumstances there is only one solution — we must make better use of the livestock feed ingredients that are available —

- (1) CULL VIGOROUSLY — get those low producers out of your flock. They waste feed and money.
- (2) FEED WISELY — poor feed well fed is lost — good feed poorly fed is wasted. Good feed well fed means production and profit.

50 YEARS AGO

From The Era and Express files, April 17, 1896

George Heise cut his thumb at Cane's factory Monday morning. Joseph Pipher is showing two horses at the Big Canadian Horse Show, Toronto, this week.

Miss Willson, Thornhill, is the new teacher at the model school. The ladies of the W.C.T.U. held a surprise party and presentation for Mrs. Chas. Penrose who left this week to reside in Toronto.

Mrs. Penrose was presented with a rocker and parlor stand.

Percy Clay, son of C. O. Clay, had his fingers jammed in a stamping machine at the Office Specialty Tuesday morning.

The demand for clothes pins at Cane's factory is so great another machine has been put in to help keep up with the orders.

Zenas Black, Glenville, broke the knee cap of his right leg on Sunday morning.

I. Silver has commenced to erect a stable on the site of the one that was burned down.

The Office Specialty Co. is adding another addition on the west side of the factory. The building will be 7' x 9', two stories high. Another one will be built on the east side 35' x 20' for dry lumber.

Lacrosse has been organized for 1896 with James J. Lowe as the president.

Butter was 20 cents a pound on the market Saturday.

Send your questions to Mrs. Dorothy Bowman, P.O. box 144, Honesty

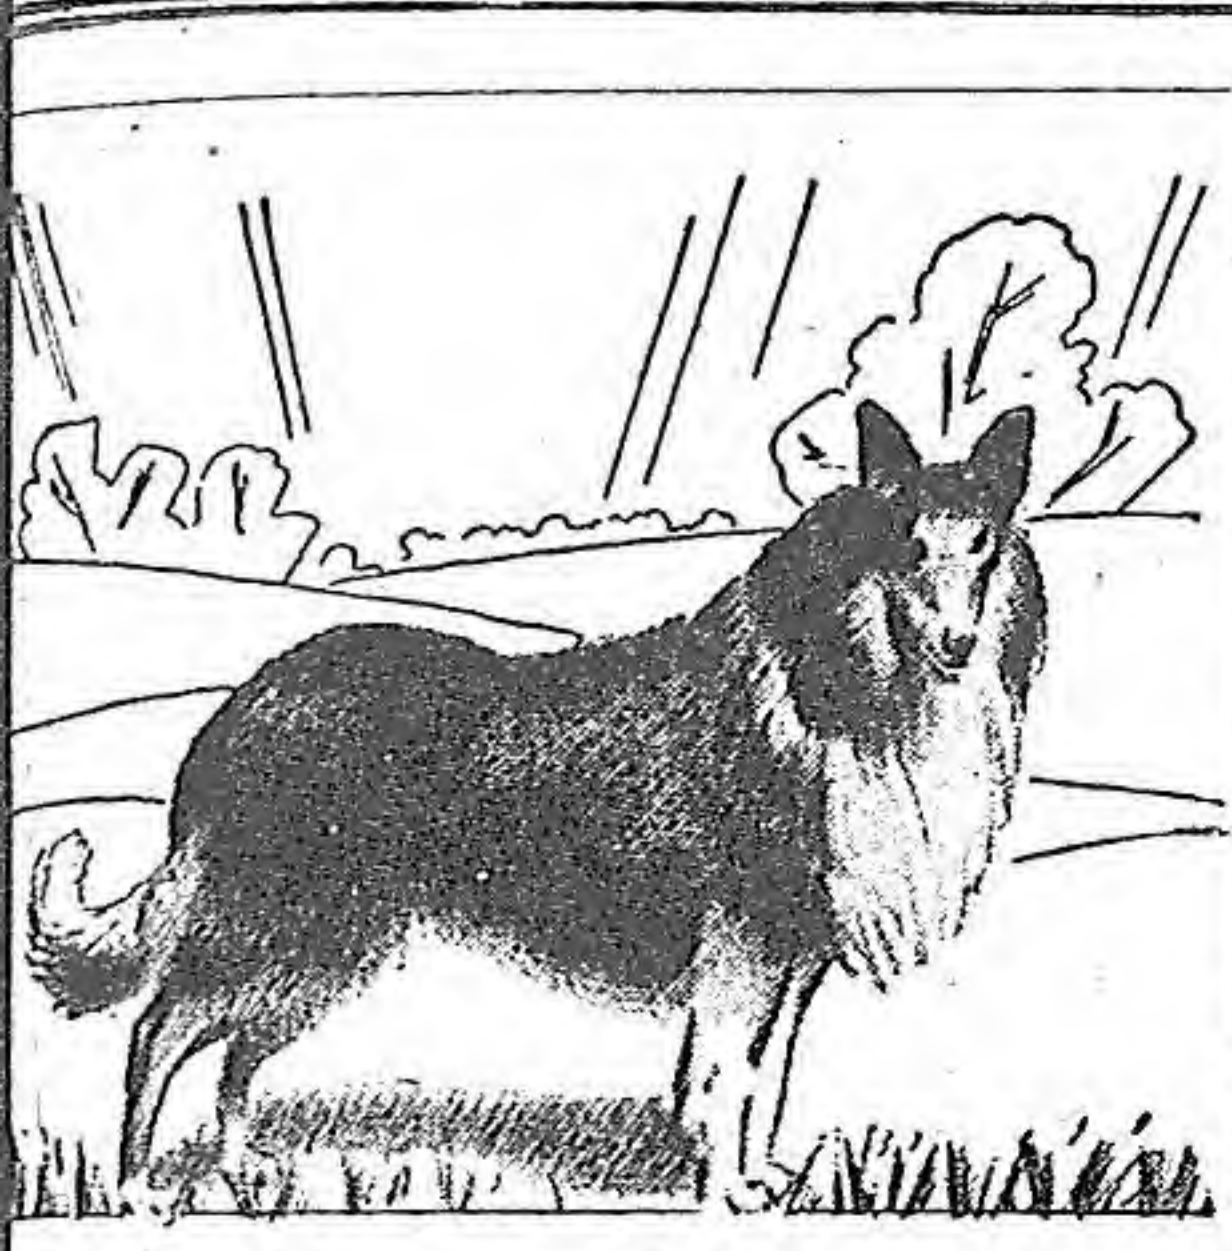

Honesty is a characteristic behaviour that is acquired after years of learning. There is no use expecting the immature child to be an adult as to this quality. He hasn't enough knowledge to separate the real from the imaginative world. To secure results he will use crude methods; lying to avoid punishment is to be expected. We need to deal with the child constructively. Honesty is learned through example and experience. Don't make honesty a virtue by putting too much emphasis on it as such. The emphasis should be on straightforward activity. The emphasis on honesty should be on wanting others to believe what we say.

Honesty is a necessity to get

Too Many Sheep?
We have too many breeds of sheep in Canada; but none ideally suited to the great ranges of the West. However, animal breeders on Experimental Farms are creating breeds, or introducing and adapting them to Canadian conditions. Soon the names of Corriedale, Romeldale and Romney will be well known all over.
Alert farmers are making profitable use of this expert knowledge—a service which is yours for the asking.

Victory serenade: Aurora still basks in the limelight of that plucky band of kids who annexed a provincial title in their first year in O.M.H.A. competition. It is not often that any club enters a league of such wide connections and romps home with the bacon first time out. Of course the start goes back to public school where coach Del Babcock has been handling teams day in and day out and teaching them the rudiments of sport.
Last year with the backing of the Lions club, the program for local kids was enlarged and wisely enough those in charge decided to confine the competition to Aurora and exhibition games before meeting outside competition. The Aurora team which won the championship, except for the roster, bore little resemblance to the team that competed in the district group. It was lucky to get past Fred Hall's Newmarket club on its showing in the finals, although handicapped by illness and a case of too much hockey for the bigger lads. But there's no gain-saying the fact that from the first game with Oakville, the boys began to come on like the proverbial house afire and looked better each time out.
The addition of Jack Atkinson, Richmond Hill, to the defence, as we have pointed out before, was one of the big reasons for the improved play but by the time the finals were reached, all the team had confidence and the will to win and there wasn't a weak link in the chain. Some of the boys were much better than others, 'tis true, but the same situation applied to all their rivals in the playdowns and Aurora had the edge and "the most of the bests", as the late Ben Bernie used to say.
Under sixteen on November 1 is the age limit for midget hockey and there won't be many of the team eligible for next season in this series. We think Gerry Simmons and John King are the only ones in that category. Bill McGhee, Ron Simmons and Walt Davis played juvenile this year as well as midget and weren't outclassed in the higher series, so a move upwards won't affect the team seriously, although the competition is tougher. Jack Atkinson, to name but one at least, will be seen in the livery of Richmond Hill junior C club. Others, while not bound for the Hill so far as we know, may be urged to play elsewhere. 'Twas always thus. You build up a team and along comes somebody else to pick off the most luscious plums. Speaking of repeats for another year, the Thorold team which Aurora met had seven holdovers from the team that won the championship last season, Slater, the goalie, big Fred Thompson who, as No. 2, caught the eyes of all the fans, Duckett, Longo, Gabriel, Battle and Girótti. So they were no tyros to play-off hockey. While not offering any alibis, some of the Thorold boys were a bit leg weary through playing C.Y.O. midget at the same time. Seven of the boys played for Thorold Holy Rosary in the Toronto diocese. That meant around four games a week. The Aurora kids found they couldn't physically stand that much hockey earlier in the year. Thorold knows it now. Thorold lost out in the diocese final too.
Ron Simmons, Walt Davis, Bill McGhee and Jack Andrews did not conclude their season's hockey at Barrie. They joined Jack Atkinson and the Richmond Hill minor midgets last Friday night to play in the King Clancy series, losing out 4-3 to Bell's Hawks. The Toronto Hockey league, like the clubs who competed in the N.H.L. midget series, did not enter the O.M.H.A. playdowns. The Aurora youngsters figure they could take the measure of St. Michael's which won the latter series, but doubt if they could win over the O.M.H.A. A series.
Minor hockey, where the gates until the finals at least are not big, we were surprised to learn aped the O.H.A. and other highly organized leagues by taking a slice of the play-offs. In the semi-final rounds, the Aurora team had to pony over a 15 percent cut of the gate to the O.M.H.A. and in the final series a 25 percent chunk. This was one league where we figured this head tax, always a headache to clubs, could well be dispensed with. The travelling expenses were not light in the play-offs either. Aurora guaranteed Barrie arena the first $50 of the gate and a percentage of the 50-50 variety once $100 was reached. Fortunately, Aurora made out all right at the gate on both occasions they played in Barrie. The fact the dollar sign was out was further emphasized at Maple Leaf Gardens on Friday night when there was no provision made for passes for the Aurora kids to see the games carded and be on hand for the cup presentation. Earl Attridge and Bill Holloway had to dip down in their pockets and pay for the youngsters to get in. This was an all-for-free gate to the O.M.H.A. too.
Orchids to fellows like Earl Attridge, Gordy Stout and all the rest who drove the team at their own expense wherever they went. Unnoticed by the multitude has been the contribution made by Cliff Bernardo, the team's No. 1 fan. Cliff donated a blanket to the club earlier in the year and provided the gum and oranges from his own pocket every night for the team. We are doubtless missing many others who contributed to the well being of the team but we haven't all the inside info on this and we pass on these bits from our own observations.
A special hand to young Walt Davis who played great hockey under a severe physical handicap and unaccustomed to the use of a mask. Following that unfortunate clout on the temple and eye at Gravenhurst in the Sundridge game, many a youngster with less intestinal fortitude would have quit the game, especially with the risk involved, but Walt, who co-captained the team with Jack Atkinson, came back gamely, his playing affected to some extent, but just how much his team spirit and example meant to the other kids on the team will probably never be really appreciated in the full. In the Oakville series prior to his eye injury he scored five goals, four in one contest.

Look at it how you will that Davis-Simmons-McGhee line was pretty potent stuff. In the seven games following the Newmarket series they ruffled home 34 goals.
Ron Simmons played terrific hockey in the last five games, performing the hat trick five games in a row and climaxing the entire performance by a four-goal spurge in the final game. He is a particularly neat stick handler and his big need for the future is to acquire more speed, which doubtless will come.
Billy McGhee, handicapped by illness and resulting lack of condition, was also dynamite. Bill tallied nine and some of his goals were especially timely. Don't forget, however, while these three got most of the headlines, the rest of the lads were nearly as effective and were outlucked on the score sheet. Ability to follow orders was a strong point of the team and despite the fact the boys have received a good many pats on the back, so far we haven't heard any of them needing bigger chapeaus. Let's keep it that way, fellows. The team was a good one but not a great one. While we're about it, let's remember, too, that of all the opponents they met none looked any better individually than young Laurie Thoms, Newmarket, and youthful Len Fuller, Bradford, two of the best kids in the district.
Correction: department: Last issue we said that Sutton Green-shirts would not meet Cayuga for the All-Ontario rural crown. Too late to do anything about it, we learned over the amech that they were to play in Galt on the 11th. Just to keep the records straight, they did play and the Haldimand county boys edged out the Pringle clan 2-1 in an epic struggle to take the Chas. E. Downing trophy. The Green-shirts didn't lose a thing financially, nor on their season's record as Cayuga, after all, was the O.R.H.A. rural senior winner. Keith Kyle, not Ron Kyle, is the Aurora Lions netminder. We have only written "Keith" all season but waited for a race against deadline in the final write-up to use "Ron". Keith's next oldest brother, in cold print. Sorry Keith, you did a mighty fine job and should get all the credit.

An Embarrassing Compliment

THE appointment of an individual as executor of your estate is an expression of confidence in his or her integrity and ability. It may, however, prove embarrassing to the person so named. An executor has to deal with a variety of difficult problems. Many are highly technical, some require more time than can be conveniently spared. An executor hesitates to take a holiday; he may feel guilty if illness interferes with his duties as executor.

DOWN THE CENTRE

those who saw them, certainly won the travelling championship of Ontario this year. They came south to meet Orono and Bolton and then moved out of their own rink to Brantford and Barrie to oust Simcoe in the finals. Figure the mileage, loss of time from school by the players, from business by their supporters, the amount of money that went out legitimate spending channels at home and the fact the Lions club, who backed them, were $300 out-of-pocket, and then ask if travelling all over Ontario is worthwhile. We still think, as we did before, the O.M.H.A. series might well be conducted on a smaller scale.

Barrie arena struck a golden jackpot this year or we miss our guess. We saw the first game of the season there between St. Louis Flyers and Buffalo on October 10 and they pulled the ice out on Monday. (Just about saw the last game too, Ken Walls). Aside from junior A, junior B and juvenile B, teams from Barrie and the Camp Borden league, the arena by virtue of mild weather became the "home ice" for Collingwood, Orillia, Powassan and Bobcaygeon intermediates, Sutton, Stroud, Alliston, Stayner in the O.R.H.A., Powassan and Aurora in the O.M.H.A. as well as the means of settling many district leagues, and some from quite a piece away too. Truth to tell, the heaviest gates came from some of the games where no Barrie team was playing. Skating, hockey practices, figure skating, carnivals, etc., all did well. Guess that can be used as a practical demonstration for those who say artificial ice won't pay.

It was refreshing to note that Barrie Flyers, which finished out of the play-offs in junior A, finished in blue ink—it's the first time we've heard a club publicly say so in quite a while. Barrie will be back again and the Barrie scouts had their eyes peeled on the visiting firemen. Couldn't get them to admit just who were the favored ones but Skip Taylor, Sutton Green-shirts, and Mousseau, Powassan, and a lad from Goderich were highly regarded by some of the railbirds who should know what's what.

Zephyr Blues wound up proceedings with a banquet and hockey frolic up north last Wednesday night. Sorry we couldn't make it, Bert, but our thoughts were with you. The Zephyr team received brown windbreakers with blue and white trim and crests, a fitting reward for their efforts over the season. The team received as champions of the Aurora league over $300 for their share of the play-off and regular season gates. Ballantrae drew $235 for their share, while the other teams got $67 each. Not bad, considering the league was working on a percentage basis with the arena in place of hiring it on a flat rate as last year. Twenty-five dollars went to the injured players' funds but it was only half enough and next year some other means of looking after these bills must be figured out. Aurora town fathers must have smiled happily as they drew down more than any of the teams, a mere matter of $571 for 11 nights of play and not a free practice to the teams either. While the arena is municipally owned, the town seeks to put it on a paying basis. You can mark it down that the so-called bush league hockey paid the shot this year.

We can't let the hockey season slip past without mentioning Mrs. Elizabeth Low Knight, Uxbridge. Eighteen years ago Mrs. Knight organized a Sunday-school class of eight boys in Chalmers Presbyterian church at Uxbridge and founded the Chalmers Young Men's club, abbreviated to the initials of C.Y.M.C. Forty-six of 56 members served in the armed forces and today as dynamic as ever, she is teaching children of some of the originals. Sports always played a part in the club's activities and in 1936 a hockey team was organized which subsequently played in the T.H.L. This season the class sponsored under its colors the Uxbridge junior C hockey team which made a splendid showing against Whitby and Stouffville. Mrs. Knight, we understand, never missed a game all season and was one of the top rooters. The team included at least one lad of other than Presbyterian extraction in the person of Ross Hochberger of Hebrew ancestry who attracted a look-see from some of the bigger clubs. Denomination appeared to be forgotten in the interest of good, clean sport. We think this is the only church-sponsored team in the O.H.A. and the orbit is probably wider than that.

Les Beazer and Bert Ward can note that the intermediate O.H.A. B championship was won by a 100 percent veterans' team from the Canadian Legion branch at Preston. The win went over big all over Ontario and next year that ex-service hockey competition proposed by the Newmarket vets is a definite must on the sports calendar.

The North York Lacrosse League is the title Charlie Rowntree and his mates have chosen for the district lacrosse league which is well underway. With no immediate response from either Aurora or Newmarket, the league officials have decided to play with a four-club intermediate section of Combines. Richmond Hill, Maple and Woodbridge and a juvenile league comprised of the same four clubs with an invitation still on, the doormat for Aurora and Newmarket youngsters. Jack Smith, who represents York North at Ottawa, has provided a trophy for the intermediate series to be known as the J. E. Smith cup and it will be up for annual competition. Orillia, after some doubt, has re-entered the O.L.A. after an absence of five or six years. The old arena in Orillia is to be moved from its present site, though it may be there for the summer. The Orillia hydro has purchased the land and the Eplett's barn, as it was often referred to, will move elsewhere. That gives those who have been wanting to get artificial ice in the Couchiching, a chance to make a move and that's what's going to be done.

Doug Gillespie, who is well remembered for his hockey exploits with Orangeville juniors and is one of Scotty Mair's pals, has moved to Owen Sound. Doug, who served with the 30th battery and played hockey the past winter for Staffords, is a swell lacrosse player and Piper Bain is counting upon him for the Owen Sound senior team. Gerry Goodman, Aurora, has the programs rights at both Owen Sound and Orillia for the lacrosse seasons.

Brampton, always a hot bed of lacrosse, has tried out a new scheme this year. Using the gymnasium of Grace church, a four-team, under 20, lacrosse circuit is playing several nights a week to good crowds. The game is in miniature with no pads and a sponge ball being used. For a good many years a similar league has functioned at Toronto Varsity, only on a bigger floor. The players at Brampton are chipping in a nickel each every week to provide the winners with crests. Injuries are at a minimum and the big void in sports between winter and late spring is well gapped. They play five men a side with three subs. Brampton also boasts a four-team community basketball league. The community recreation plan appears working well over there. Here is an example for Newmarket, Sutton and other centres interested in the community recreation project to consider.

Georgetown council in its budget this year has allowed one mill on the tax rate to go to the recreation council of the town, an amount which is over $1,400 according to the dope we get. Woodbridge, not included in any community recreation project, has organized a community athletic set-up with Ernie Root, agriculturist and parson, as president. In addition to the teams in the North York lacrosse league, a house league for lacrosse players will be conducted and serve as a feeder to the teams. Softball is also on the program for the summer. Lyness Glass, Ross Cameron, Bert Young, Don Cameron, Charlie Rowntree and the village council are beating the drums for the new organization. A fee of four bits is charged for membership for those under 18 and it's a one-buck ante for adults. This, with certain money-raising plans, will finance it.

Richmond Hill youth council is planning six softball teams in the southern village. Not big league teams, but of the community type where Don the dud

MAGISTRATE'S COURT HELD IN CUSTODY ON ASSAULT COUNT

Archie E. Foster was remanded in custody when he was found guilty of the charge of having assaulted Ernest Gardner, 58, at the municipal dump April 5, in magistrate's court here Friday. Magistrate J. E. Pritchard presided.

"Foster assaulted me Friday night at the dump," said Gardner. "I heard someone coming onto the dump after 8 p.m. I saw it was Foster and I said 'What are you doing here?' and he wheeled around and hit me. I threw up my arms to ward off his blows but he pulled my coat over my head." Gardner said he lost track of the number of times he was hit.

Dr. L. W. Dales said he had treated Gardner for bruises and cuts and a fractured rib. County Constable Ronald Watt said he went to the home of the accused who readily admitted he had struck Gardner.

Dr. Dales said that there had been considerable trespassing on the town dump, that signs had been torn down, tools had disappeared. "Gardner is in full charge of the dump, he is a special constable, and this is the climax of some months of trouble," he said.

The accused man refused to say anything in his defence. A mason, he said he was married, had five children, and had lived on Second St. the past year.

PINE ORCHARD

You are invited to come to Pine Orchard school on Good Friday evening, April 19. Rev. N. Rowan will present the Easter story with lantern slides.

can play alongside Sam the star. It is proposed to have three teams for the lads and three for the lassies. They'll need a new diamond but since they've gone out and got themselves their own recreation clubhouse, that shouldn't be too hard to cope with. Meaford is spending $2,000 to install flood lights for the summer softball season, a big undertaking for a small centre but it's all worked out. The softball diamond is located right on the main street in the heart of the town and has been going great guns in recent years. Hope you liked that bit of what can be done elsewhere.

Aside to Gene McCaffery, George Haskett, Bob Beaville and one or two more who have been in our mail basket in recent days. We'll deal with the matters you mentioned, or requested, shortly. Our thanks for the interest in this column.

Ten years ago, there were 685,000

Bell telephones in service. Today there are over a million—56 per cent more.

EVERY time a new telephone is installed the scope of your service is enlarged. You may not need to call many of the new subscribers, but when you do, they are within reach—and it may be urgent.

We have added more than 75,000 telephones since V-E Day. As we bend all our efforts to catch up on delayed orders, the scope of your service will continue to grow—its potential value will increase.

In 1946 our outlay for expansion and improvements will exceed thirty million dollars.

We are losing no time.

"Meet my neighbour... my rainy-day expert"

"Pretty swanky, eh?" said Henry's neighbour, eyeing the new sunroom. "How come? Did you win some money at the races?"

"Meet my neighbour... my rainy-day expert," said Henry. "As my life insurance man, he helped me finance this new sunroom fifteen years ago."

"Fifteen years ago!" exclaimed the builder, glancing from one to the other.

"Years ago he gave me a new slant on life insurance — 'Provide for the rainy days... then you can enjoy the sunshine.' So that's the way I budget. My life insurance premiums are the first call on my income. That means I don't have to worry about Kitty and the kids. Then I figure current expenses, right down to so much a week for movies and ice cream cones. And then!... whatever I can bank over and above that is velvet. When it mounts up, Kitty gets a new gadget for the kitchen, or we smarten up the house. This new sunroom comes out of our velvet."

There is nothing like life insurance to give a man peace of mind. He can enjoy spending if he is sure that the future of his loved ones is secure. Everyone wants independence and protection for his family... and when that is insured, a man can indulge his whims.

Near you, wherever you are, is a neighbour in the life insurance business. Ask him for advice in planning your future. It is good citizenship to own life insurance.

A message from the Life Insurance Companies in Canada and their agents.

ARCHWAY SETTING OF APRIL WEDDING

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the groom's parents amid an archway of evergreen and roses on April 6 when Margaret Frances Mae Somerville, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Somerville, Newmarket, became the bride of James Lloyd Penny, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Penny, Markham. Rev. Henry Cotton officiated. Mrs. Wm. George, sister of the bride, played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, George W. Anning, wore a white rayon chiffon gown. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. Her flowers were yellow roses and sweet peas. Miss Shirley Anning, the bride's cousin, was bridesmaid and wore a pink chiffon gown and carried pink roses and sweet peas.

Robert McDowell, cousin of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. Mrs. George Anning, aunt of the bride, received in a gown of heavenly blue rayon crepe with corsage of pink roses and sweet peas, assisted by the groom's mother in honor blue rayon crepe and wore a corsage of red roses.

For the honeymoon to points south, the bride chose a flowered net jersey dress, biege tweed coat and brown accessories. They will reside at Markham. Visitors were present from Toronto, Port Hope, Newmarket, Glenville and Richmond Hill.

COUPLE WILL LIVE ON SHARON FARM

The Free Methodist parsonage was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, April 6, when Rev. G. H. Bache united in marriage Dorothy Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Willson, Holt, to Ivan B. A. Fairbairn, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fairbairn, Sharon.

The bride entered the room to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. R. Beckett. She was dressed in a street-length dress of heavenly blue silk crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of sweet-heart roses. Audrey Ruth Willson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, dressed in a pink jersey dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mr. Donald Fife of Sharon acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet lunch was served to about 30 guests. Mrs. Willson of Sutton, grandmother of the bride, poured tea. Later the happy couple left amid showers of confetti for a motor trip to Niagara Falls and other points west. The bride travelled in a navy blue suit and blue hat. On their return they will reside near Sharon, where the groom farms.

JOHN DAVID WEIR WAS TOWN EMPLOYEE

In ill health for three years, John David Weir died at his home, 8 Ellen St., Newmarket, on March 19 as a result of a heart attack.

Born at Sandhill, Ont., on June 19, 1864, a son of Elizabeth and David Weir, he married Ettie Thomas.

Mr. Weir was employed by the town of Newmarket for about 18 years. He was an adherent of the United Church and a member of Sandhill lodge.

Surviving are two sons, William Weir, overseas, and David Weir, Toronto, and a step-daughter, Margaret Cummings, Newmarket.

Rev. L. E. Sparks of the Church of the Nazarene, Newmarket, conducted the funeral service at the chapel of Roadhouse and Rose on April 1. Interment was made in Newmarket cemetery.

The pallbearers were Calvin Davis, Datus Crowder, Will Brown, Howard Brown, Edward Bailie and Donald Blair.

YOUNG P.C.'S JOIN IN PARTY CONVENTION

North York was well represented at the annual meeting of the Ontario Young Progressive-Conservative Association held in Toronto on Saturday. Just about every municipality had some of their young folk on hand, and those attending were the guests of Maj. Alex. Mackenzie, M.L.A. Among those from Aurora who attended were: William Fry, D.F.C., Miss Betty Boulding, Clifford Case and James Stocks. Those attending report the meeting as one of the largest in the history of the organization with considerable enthusiasm being shown. Premier George Drew paid a visit to the headquarters of the North York delegation, along with Highways Minister George Doucett, and met each delegate.

Wing Commander John Perry, D.S.O., D.F.C., of Woodbridge, former student at Aurora high school, heads a committee of North York young people who will shortly organize throughout the riding.

Midgets Presented With Cup At Toronto Gardens

Aurora Lions midget champions had their presentation ceremony all over again on Friday night. This time the scene was Maple Leaf Gardens in place of Barrie arena. At Barrie last week Dr. Leon Hipwell of Toronto, past president of the O.M.H.A., and President Harold Luke of Toronto presented the champions with a trophy, later to discover they had brought along another cup in place of the Hipwell Cup, so Leonard Simmons, Bill Holloway, Del. Babcock, and all the boys went to Toronto where Billy Attridge and Mr. Simmons received the official trophy from the donor. The Aurora boys drew a big hand from the crowd when their win was announced over the loudspeaker. The local youngsters enjoyed the triple-header minor league games, and came away convinced that they could hold their own with the best of midget "A" and N.H.L. midget series teams in Ontario.

Old Frame Farm House Destroyed By Fire Monday

Fire early Monday afternoon destroyed the frame farm house and driving sheds of David Archibald of the 3rd concession of King before aid from Aurora could arrive. The dwelling, one of the oldest in King township, was situated near the Gamble bush on the former Luke Gibbons' farm, and Mr. Archibald resided there with his parents. The fire, believed to have started from an oil stove, had a big start before it was discovered, and the family were only able to save a chestfield, chairs, and a few household effects in the inferno created by the high wind. Almost all their personal belongings were destroyed. Implements in the driving shed were saved. Fortunately the barn was located at some distance from the farm house. The Aurora fire brigade rushed to the scene but were unable to save any of the buildings. Loss is estimated at over $4,000.

Legion Plans Drumhead Service May 5 In Park

Aurora Branch 385, Canadian Legion, will hold a service on Sunday, May 5, in the Aurora town park. Invited to attend are legion branches from Sutton West, Mount Albert, Richmond Hill, Woodbridge and Willowdale, as well as war veterans' associations from Newmarket, Stouffville and Bradford. St. Andrew's College cadet corps and pipe band, Aurora high school cadet corps and bugle band, and Schomberg continuation school cadets will also take part in the ceremony. It is expected the ceremony, which will honor the fallen comrades of the Second World War, will be one of the largest and most impressive ever held in the district. Group Capt. Rev. G. O. Lightbourn, and the branch padre, Capt. Rev. R. K. Perdue, will be in charge of the service. Invitations are being extended to various municipal bodies throughout the county to attend.

They Liked Our Kids Society Is On Trial, Moral Growth Slow -- Judge Hawley Mott

Here are some of the press quotes throughout Ontario regarding the prowess of the Aurora Lions midget "B" champions. While not entirely accurate in all instances they indicate the esteem the team was held in by its opponents and the good publicity Aurora received.

Oshawa Times-Journal (Whitby series): Aurora has a good band of hockey players. They are all big boys and can really play hockey. They should be able to take the title without too much trouble. Whitby, on the other hand, had a good club but not good enough for Aurora. The boys all tried hard but just couldn't beat Kyle in goal who played a real game. Dalby in goal played a steady game. All the goals that were scored against him were clean-cut. Williams and his wing-nates tried their best to add a few more tallies but their efforts were in vain.

St. Catharines Standard, April 5: Mounts, playing before the largest crowd they have drawn yet this season were not up to their usual form. The score was a pretty accurate indication of the play. Lions' passes clicked and their play on the night was a credit to their coach, Del. Babcock. Mounts, on the other hand, tried too hard. Their passes were often hasty and they repeatedly cleared the puck without looking. As a result many potentially good plays backfired on them.

The Aurora centre ice player, Ron Simmons, was easily the best man on the ice for either team last night, scoring three goals and two assists and setting up many other plays. Davis on the defence for Lions and Hyde in goal, were both worthy of mention.

St. Catharines Standard, April 11: It was a clear case of victory going to the better team and no hockey fan would have it any other way no matter how much he would like to see the home town win. Mounts played better hockey than they did against Aurora here last Thursday night but were still not good enough to win. It was no discredit to the team to lose. They are a good squad and deserve all the credit in the world for the showing they made this year and last. To win an Ontario title one year and be in the finals for the same title the following year is a record to be proud of. The entire team worked hard and gave their best.

Ron Simmons again held the spotlight in last night's game. It would be safe to say that without this brilliant young player, Aurora's chances of winning the midget title would have been very slim indeed. He is a credit to his home town and to his father, who is the Lions' manager.

"Sports Done Browne," in St. Catharines Standard, April 12: Thorold Mounts surrendered their O.M.H.A. midget "B" title to Aurora Kings and are the first ones to admit that the North Toronto suburb is the better team. It is hard to take anything away from a club good enough to win away first and clinch it at home, in a series sweep. It could also be said that Mounts were lulled into false security by decisive wins right to the finals and that halo of power affected them in the very round that was all-important. We've felt the same sting down here and can sympathize with the green-jackets of Thompson and Allan.

12-TON MARK SET IN DRIVE FOR SALVAGE

Aurora Board of Trade paper salvage officials were literally swamped on Saturday as the contestants by truck, and all types of vehicles, brought to headquarters a record collection of 12 tons. It was the largest single day's collection ever gathered locally, and represents three times the best day's collection since paper salvage campaigns have been held locally. A special prize of $5 offered by the Strathcona Paper Co. was an added incentive to the competitors.

Gerald Chapman headed the contestants on Saturday, bringing in 7,000 pounds in two loads, and he took the special prize. Bob Bull had a load of 4,250 pounds. Lionel Stephenson brought in 3,200 pounds, and Walter Fines delivered 3,000 pounds. Several other contestants including John Hodgkinson were close behind. Some top-ranking competitors remained out of the day's competition, saving up for Saturday, April 27, when another collection is being held. Other competitors only brought in part of the amount on hand, figuring their loads would be sufficient to win the day's prize. Another $5 is offered as a special prize in the last collection in the present contest.

The response has been so great, and the returns so satisfactory to the Aurora Board of Trade committee in charge which is turning over the proceeds to the community war memorial fund, that another contest with valuable prizes will be held. The contestants are just as eager to see another contest, and as the boys enter the home stretch, almost any competitor can win with an extra special effort on Saturday, April 27.

WELCOME BRIDE

Gormley last week welcomed one of its first English war brides, Mrs. Wesley Grove, who arrived on the Ile de France from Kent, England. Mr. Groves is now employed in Toronto and he and his bride will reside there shortly.

RESIGNS POST

A. J. G. Wilson, former Aurora councillor and barrister, has resigned from the board of education at Barrie on which he has served two years. Mr. Wilson, who received his discharge from the army a few months ago, is now practising law in Toronto. Mrs. Wilson and family are still residing in Barrie.

P.C.'S TO MEET

The annual meeting of the North York Progressive-Conservative Association is announced for Richmond Hill on Saturday, May 4.

FIXING WIRES, SCOTT ANNAN HURT IN FALL

Twenty-two-year-old Scott Annan, assistant town electrician and returned overseas veteran, lies in a serious condition in hospital following an accident on Friday morning.

Mr. Annan was engaged with town electrician Charles Copland and other town employees on line repair work on Wellington St. west near the R.C.O.C. depot. Both he and Mr. Copland were working on the same pole, when Mr. Annan received a shock, relaxed his hold, fell on to the wires, and was knocked unconscious. Before help could reach him he toppled to the ground, 18 feet below. Alex. Annan, his father, also employed by the municipality, tried to catch him from below and succeeded in partially breaking the fall, but the victim suffered a broken vertebrae in his back, two broken ribs, and serious internal injuries as well as severe bruises. He was treated by Dr. Crawford Rose, and rushed to hospital. According to reports from hospital Wednesday, his condition was critical.

Following the accident, town electrician Charles Copland checked for a shock with no result. Both Mr. Copland and Mr. Annan had often received a shock of 110 volts in the course of their work without any effect. On Monday Mr. Copland was able to state that Mr. Annan had received a charge of 550 volts. In descending the pole, it is believed, Mr. Annan's shoulders must have grazed two insulators on the guide wire, loosening the proper contact, and when they came together later they completed a circuit, which gave him the shock of the full charge.

RECEIVES DEGREE

Frederick Ewart Madden, grandson of the late Rev. W. E. Madden of Aurora, and son of Rev. C. E. Madden, formerly United church minister of Queensville, received his B.A. degree last Friday at the Convocation of Toronto Emmanuel College.

FOUNDATION LAID

The foundation of the Aurora Gospel church is being completed this week, and work will start shortly on both the interior and exterior. The congregation, which is holding services in the old Aurora town hall, hopes to occupy its new building next month.

PRESENTED WITH LAMP

St. Andrew's church choir held a surprise party on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Fleury in honor of one of its members, Miss Beverly Fleury, whose marriage takes place next Saturday. The bride-to-be was presented with a floor lamp by her associates.

"Our society of today is on trial in a very definite way," Judge Hawley Mott of Toronto told the annual ladies' night meeting of Aurora Board of Trade on Friday evening. "Science came along in the 19th century, and has been continuing since then to provide us with new ways of making a living, and to live. In 50 years it placed more tools in man's hands than he has ever had before, and enlarged our possibilities and widened our horizons. Inventions have made man an enormous being, but we have not kept pace by way of the spirit or soul. We have a huge physical body without the corresponding ethical growth."

The solution to present day problems starts in the average citizen and in his home, Judge Mott said. "We must develop increased fraternity, improving our relations with our neighbors. We must try to have a greater development of understanding and good will. A deeper sense of justice, and a deeper sense of liberty than we have ever had before are needed to fill this huge body with the true ethical values. Lift up the quality of the individual and you'll make the state safe," he declared.

Since 1919, Judge Mott, a former school teacher, has guided the destinies of Toronto's juvenile court, and from his wide experiences he recalled many humorous and timely incidents. Aside from the ordinary trial of juveniles, and family court problems, there were thousands of people who came for advice each year, and whose troubles never reached the court stage. A psychological approach was made in the case of juveniles, and a thorough probing made into family background and neighborhood associations. "Society is over-stimulated today," he said. "We are disoriented in our thinking as a people, and children are growing up under abnormal conditions in many cases. We can expect to have greater juvenile trouble where there is not harmony in the home and where the parents have not adjusted themselves properly to married life and its obligations."

Juvenile problems did not necessarily arise only in the homes of the poor but came from the homes of the wealthy as well and where there was every

Lack of proper understanding of the marriage vows was the main reason for incompatibility and misunderstanding, he said. It was easy to marry, and hard to get out of its responsibilities. "Something should be done to have people sense the gravity and seriousness of the marriage contract, and prevent these bottlenecks in our social life," he said. Judge Mott was introduced by Lorne C. Lee and a vote of thanks was moved by Councillor William West. Dr. E. J. Henderson, president of the board, was toastmaster. Miss Marjorie Andrews was pianist, and Miss Lois Marshall of Toronto was guest soloist.

A witty toast to the ladies was proposed by Wilfred Adams and responded to by Mrs. Hugh McRae. There were over 75 couples present, and following the chicken dinner, a dance was enjoyed with Max Boag's orchestra providing the music.

President Dr. E. J. Henderson announced a municipal canvass for the cancer fund would be held under the board's direction, and he requested a generous response.

Horse Show Returning To Original Date Of June 8

Saturday, June 8, as originally planned will be the date for the Aurora Horse Show. Last week, there was some talk of transferring the date to either June 15, or 22, but on Saturday night the directors, on canvassing the situation, found June 8 to be the most suitable date even though a horse show will be held in Hamilton on that date.

Other dates presented an even more difficult picture. It was felt that the distance between the two shows and the larger number of classes and prize money offered would more than meet the situation in favor of the Aurora show. "The prize-money this year is the largest in the history of the show," secretary A. E. L. Maughan said. "In some classes it is as much as $105 besides the trophies and specials. All classes report great interest and the prize list is being prepared for distribution this month. If we get good weather everything points to the 1946 show being one of the best since the show started."

PLAN SCHOOL AREA IN SIMCOE COUNTY

First neighboring areas to North York to approve the school area plan are the townships of Tecumseh and West Gwillimbury in Simcoe county. Under this plan, 14 school sections in West Gwillimbury, and 17 school sections in Tecumseh will be dissolved on Dec. 25 of this year. In each township new township boards of trustees will be set up composed of five members elected annually at the annual township elections. They will govern the affairs of the schools in the township. The plan has been approved by the department of education. It is believed internal saving will be effected, better service provided, and the general school levy lowered as a result of this step. It may mean, however, the closing of certain schools in each township.

INSPECTION MAY 23

The date of the annual cadet inspection at St. Andrew's College has been announced for Wednesday, May 22.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark attended the funeral of Mr. Clark's mother at Richmond Hill on Thursday of last week.

BORN IN AURORA, E. H. SNIDER DIES

Manufacturers' sales manager for the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. of Canada, Edgar H. Snider died in St. Joseph's hospital, Hamilton, from injuries received in a traffic accident at Hamilton Beach on Wednesday, April 10.

Born in Aurora, Mr. Snider had lived in Hamilton 20 years, and for some years in Toronto prior to that. He was representative of the Firestone Co. at Ottawa during the Second Great War.

A Mason, he was a member of Aecia Lodge and the Scottish Rite, and also belonged to Centenary United church, Hamilton, and Ottawa Lions club. An enthusiastic curler, he had been associated with both the Ottawa curling club and the Thistle club of Hamilton.

Surviving are his widow, Eleanor E. Snider; a daughter, Patricia Eleanor, and a son, Edward Harold, all of Toronto; two sisters, Mrs. F. W. Thompson (Estela), Toronto, and Mrs. Thos. Dawson (Irene), Montreal; and one brother, Will, of Toronto. Interment was at Mount Pleasant cemetery on Saturday.

J. A. TILLEY IS MOVED TO KITCHENER BRANCH
Mr. J. A. Tilley, who came to Mount Albert nine and a half years ago as manager of the Dominion Bank, left on Monday for his new position in Kitchener. Mr. Tilley, John and Alex, will leave later in the week. Mr. and Mrs. Tilley have been active in many organizations. The Horticultural Society of which Mr. Tilley has been secretary-treasurer since he came here presented him with a lovely vase. The tennis and bowling clubs gave him a beautiful painting and the community gave him a purse.
Mrs. Cain and Miriam, Sandford, were guests on Saturday of Mrs. Sarah Cain.
A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Green one evening last week for Mrs. Blanche Stark, the hairdresser, who was recently married and who received many lovely gifts.
Rev. David Harrison, Toronto, was the guest speaker on Sunday morning when the W.M.S. of the United church held their annual service. Mr. Harrison, a returned missionary from China, gave a fine description of China and his experiences there as a worker for the China Inland Mission in Burma. He hopes to be able to return to his work there in the not too distant future.
In the evening, Bill Burgess was the speaker for the Y.P.U. He took as his subject, "Peace which can only come by Christian living and must start in each individual if we are to have a better world". The Young People were in charge of the musical part of the service, under the direction of their musical director, Mr. Rigler.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Risebrough, Mrs. Ethel Jarvis and Mr. Jas. Jarvis, Stouffville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carr on Sunday.
Good Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock there will be a union service of both churches in the United church and Pastor E. S. Kerr of the Gospel church will be the guest speaker.
On Easter Sunday special services will be held at the United church. At the morning service Holy Communion will be observed and there will be reception of new members and special Easter music. In the evening there will be an Easter service and music.
Thursday evening of this week there will be held in the United church a magnificent picture, The Sign of the Cross. This will be under the auspices of the Woman's Association.

Chas. Rogers has purchased the house on Alice St. on the hill. Geo. Walsh is re-building it.
At a public meeting held on Wednesday evening in the hall, it was decided to hold the annual Sports Day on Saturday, June 1. The following convenors of committees were named: amusement committee for the afternoon, Harold Thompson; sports convenor, Horace Pearson; advertising, Ken Ross; dance and concert, Roy Stewart; publicity, Mildred Dike; concessions, H. Longhurst; gates, Reg Willbee; tickets, W. S. Robertson; booth, Mrs. W. R. Steeper. All convenors are asked to name at least two more on their committees.

This year the park board decided they would ask the community to work for the park alone for this one day as in previous years many organizations have benefitted by the day's financial returns. It is the only day that the park makes any funds to carry on and they ask that all co-operate.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rutledge, Newmarket, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rye, Holt, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allison.
Several Toronto Christian businessmen conducted the service in the Gospel church last Sunday.
Pastor Sid Kerr and Mr. H. J. Thompson conducted the services in the Newmarket Gospel Tabernacle last Sunday.
Mr. Jack Couch spent the weekend at his home.
The Gospel church is planning a special service for Easter Sunday night and a special offering will be taken for the renovating of the church pews.

The new tail-less plane set 140 horse power DeHavilland Gipsy Major engines, each driving a "pusher" propeller, fitted behind the engine. Rudders, fitted on the tail of orthodox aircraft, are mounted on the wings. Several aircraft of this type have now been produced in Britain.

The chief advantage in scrapping the tail is that a lower structural weight is gained. For military aircraft the absence of the tail also gives an unrestricted field of fire.

THE STARTER WITH "INGREDIENT POWER"

Remember last fall's egg market? Everything points the same way for this year. Anyone who has a flock of well grown, fully developed pullets in production next fall is going to be "in the money".

How about your flock? Will you be "wishing" or "cashing"? It depends partly on the kind of chicks you start; partly on the way you start them; partly on the way you grow them.

We can supply Purina Chick Startena, the starter with "ingredient power" to get your chicks away to a flying start... Check-R-Tabs to protect their health (drop one tablet in each quart of drinking water)... and a good Purina growing feed to grow them out big and strong, once they're past the starting period. Use these helps to better pullets and next fall you'll not be merely wishing — you'll be cashing.

SERVING CANADIANS CIL THROUGH CHEMISTRY

Rubber is a grand material—in the right place! But some of the uses to which it has been put were just a bit too much for its constitution. When exposed to sunlight, oil, gasoline or chemicals, natural rubber quickly deteriorates. And that is where neoprene synthetic rubber comes in. It can take most of the abuse that gets natural rubber down.

100-YEAR-OLD HOUSE
BURNED TO GROUND

About 9:30 Monday morning, a fire destroyed the home of Dave Archibald on the Mulock Road, better known as the Luke Gibbons' homestead. The large house, more than 100 years old, was completely burned to the ground.

The Aurora fire brigade was unable to be of any help as the fire was too far gone by the time they arrived. A gentle rain falling at the time prevented sparks doing any further danger to other buildings.

The Archibald family had just purchased this farm about one year ago.

The April meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Winch on April 24, at 2:30 p.m. Roll-call will be to pay your fee, and tell a funny story. The social welfare convenor, Mrs. Winch, has arranged for a speaker to talk on hospitalization. Election of officers for the coming year will be held. A paper will be given.
The hostesses are Mrs. Storey and Mrs. Winch.

GOOD FRIDAY

By GOLDEN GLOW

The supreme tragedy of Good Friday passes completely over the heads of thoughtless people;
to them it is just another holiday!
It should not be so for all the days in the year Good Friday should be kept sacred. In our young days it certainly was and we never went away from our homes all day except to a solemn service in the church—a church draped in sombre colors. In this day and generation nothing is sacred to a great many and I doubt if they even read the account of the crucifixion in the New Testament, let alone attend a Good Friday service to commemorate Christ's sacrifice on that day.

And yet there is scarcely a person who does not believe Friday is an unlucky day! Ask them why Friday is an unlucky day and they give you a blank stare and admit they haven't the remotest idea—it just is unlucky of course, that's all!

They say it is unlucky to start any undertaking on a Friday!
It is unlucky to start a journey on a Friday! It is unlucky to have a hair-cut on a Friday or to cut your fingernails. They will tell you if it rains on a Friday it will be a wet Sunday and if a Friday falls on the 13th, oh!
oh! a calamity of the first magnitude!

Poor Friday! It certainly has acquired a doubtful reputation, but very few ever take time or thought to inquire why, to trace back the origin of why Friday should be a tragic day. It is because of Christ's crucifixion on a Friday.

Medieval Christians wore wooden crosses and when they caught themselves boasting, they touched the cross in reverent apology and from that custom came the expression "touch wood" when we boast. I expect we have all used the saying many times thoughtlessly but why not use it and think of the origin and derive virtue even in so small a way.

I was reading not long ago why going under a ladder was regarded as most unlucky—in fact as disastrous! I wonder if any of my readers saw it too. I don't recall where I read it but it was so peculiar that I have not forgotten.

If we ever gave it a thought no doubt we just took into consideration the fact that the ladder or perhaps someone on it might fall on us if we passed underneath. It seems that ancient pictures of the removal of Christ's body from the cross, after the crucifixion, showed a ladder set up against the cross and beneath it the distorted face of a frustrated demon. Consequently, the space underneath a ladder came to be regarded as inhabited by demons—in fact it was the devil's territory and so was shunned by all good Christians and church-goers. I think I shall never want to pass under a ladder now—and I never thought of myself as superstitious!

As we sat down to a social cup of tea, a group of us, the other day someone counted then sat down looking much relieved saying, "Twelve, I was afraid it was 13," but she had no idea how the superstition had started that if 13 sat down to have a meal one would die before the year was out.

No doubt you have heard and know of the ancient tradition that tells us why. If not look at the picture of the Last Supper by Leonardo da Vinci—there are 13 seated at supper. Judas was the first to leave. Later that same night, after his betrayal of Christ, he hanged himself.

Speaking also of the same picture the artist has depicted Judas as upsetting the salt cellar.
Well, from that again comes the old saying it is unlucky to spill salt. We always say, "throw some over your left shoulder quickly" when anyone upsets the salt. Do you know why the left shoulder? Satan is supposed to hate salt and was at Judas' left side urging him on—and Judas' elbow upset the salt. So we throw spilled salt over our left shoulder to avert the evil which, you see, is supposed to come from the left side. In spite of ourselves these old superstitions influence us in our everyday life.

Some of Canada's young stars of concert stage and radio, who made their first appearance at the Manitoba Musical Festival, are seen in the National Film Board's new production, A City
Sings, released in Canada Carries On Series.

The National Film Board has recently produced Fishing Partners, a film which tells the story of scientific research carried on in Canada to aid the cod fishing industry.

ELMHURST BEACH
MRS. THOS. LOWNDES
IS NEW W.I. PRESIDENT

The annual meeting of the Elmhurst W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Ross Sturdy. Mrs.
L. Pollock, president, was in the chair. The annual report showed this to be the most successful year since the Institute was organized. A splendid report was given by Mrs. Lowndes, war work convenor, and also a report of the district directors' meeting held at Newmarket.

Mrs. Lowndes gave a paper on historical research, Mrs. Lock-erbie a humorous reading, Training Your Pets.

Mrs. Pollock made presentations on behalf of the Institute
Mrs. Ross Sturdy and Mrs.
Sturdy, Sr., the former receiving a beautiful hand-painted picture, and the latter a hand-painted georgette silk scarf. These were tokens of expression for wonderful work done to raise money for the soldiers' welcome home fund.

The election of officers then took place with Mrs. Hodgins presiding during the election.

The new officers are as follows: hon. pres., Mrs. L. B. Pollock; pres., Mrs. Thos. Lowndes; first vice-pres., Mrs. Mathews; second vice-pres., Mrs. F. Preston; sec.-treas., Mrs. W. Anderson, re-elected; asst. sec.-treas., Mrs. Marvin Clark; pianist, Mrs.
Hunter; asst. pianist, Mrs. Wm.
King; dist. director, Mrs. Hodgins; dist. representative, Mrs.
James Clark;

Directors, Mrs. F. Preston,
Mrs. A. Dawson, Mrs. Mann;
Mrs. Clare Sturdy; auditors, Mrs.
L. Pollock, Mrs. Selby Sedore; Standing committees: agriculture, Mrs. Joe Hodgins; citizen-

HOUSE WEDDING IS PRETTY EVENT

Amid a setting of an evergreen arch, daffodils, tulips and lilies, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pattenden, Vancor, Elva Kathleen Pattenden became the bride of Roy Kenneth Smith, son of Mr. W. H. Smith, Gormley, and the late Mrs. Smith, on Saturday, April 6. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Middle of Aurora.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a white crepe gown, with Victorian yoke, white net halo and finger-tip veil, silk embroidered. She wore a single strand of pearls and her flowers were pink roses. Mrs. Clarence Foote, the bride's sister, was matron of honor, and Miss Aileen Smith, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Both wore pink sheer, with matching halo and veil. Their flowers were Joanna Hill roses. Mary Pattenden, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore blue crepe with a nosegay of sweet peas.

Mr. Leslie Smith, the groom's brother, was best man. Miss Lottie Atkinson, the bride's cousin, was organist. Miss Muriel Pattenden, the bride's sister, was soloist. She sang "When song is sweet," and "I love you truly."

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Pattenden receiving in a gown of blue triple sheer, with a corsage of red roses.

For travelling the bride wore a coffee tan suit, with matching hat and brown accessories. Following a short wedding trip they will reside at Gormley.

OTTAWA LETTER

by

"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

(Editor's note: The following is a partial text of a radio address given by Mr. Smith Tuesday.)

Last week I had the privilege of joining in the welcome to our new governor general, Viscount Alexander. The ceremony of installation which I attended was colorful and impressive, and I know that already Viscount and Lady Alexander and their family have made a very favorable impression in Canada. The new governor general is possessed of qualities which eminently fit him for the high post of the king's representatives and we trust and earnestly pray that his tenure of office may be marked by real progress to better living here in Canada, and toward permanent peace and prosperity in all the world.

The excitement concerning the disclosures of spy activities here has somewhat abated and the outcome of the trials in the courts is awaited with interest. There has been some criticism of government action in this investigation but a careful study of all the facts leads to the conclusion that in these extraordinary circumstances which had arisen, extraordinary methods were required.

Keen interest has always been shown in the national status of Canadians and an important measure now before the House is the Canadian Citizenship Act. This bill defines and creates the status of a Canadian citizen and is receiving generous support by members of all parties here and throughout the country.

There is a great variety of views in the selection of a design for our national flag and in the large railway committee room there are some 1,800 different designs on display. The Maple Leaf would seem to be the predominating symbol on designs submitted, and many of course include the Union Jack. While no one knows what design the committee will recommend, I still feel that when the debate has been completed and the designs suggested filed away Canada's national flag will resemble very closely the Red Ensign which now flies from the Peace Tower on Parliament Hill.

One of the most important items to come before the house is ratification of the $1,250,000,000 loan to Britain, which has the support of all parties, but may be opposed by some individual members. The loan is not in any sense an act of charity, it is an investment in the future of Canadian trade. The loan agreement is of the highest importance and value to Canada. This agreement is the keystone in the financial measures and arrangements made by Canada for international trade and reconstruction.

The government is depending on revived and extended British and other export trade to maintain high levels of national income and employment to pull Canada through the post war period. Given access to expanding foreign markets and to imports of things we require, we can make our own employment effective in yielding us living standards far beyond any that the average Canadian enjoyed before the war. Canadian farmers and other primary producers are vitally dependent upon foreign markets, because when export markets are depressed, Canadians are thrown out of work. If Canada is to be successful in its public finance then we cannot afford to be hesitant or half-hearted in promoting the foreign trade which is the basis of the country's prosperity.

Food is our best defence against the evils of depression, hunger and unhappiness throughout the world. Common sense tells us that people of the world will continue to fight until they are fed. Of the two billion people of the world, two-thirds are hungry and a large proportion are starving. The enemy they know is famine. The friend they seek is food. The quantity of food required to restore the minds and bodies of the hungry and to bring order to the world far exceeds any potential timely supply. When the hungry are fed, they may begin to pay us in goods and services perhaps in good will. In the name of peace let us have the will and the opportunities to produce without stint.
